

TEST No. 40

TOPIC: Vice President, Prime Minister

SUBJECT: INDIAN POLITY

Explanation:

Question 1

Answer A

Explanation: During the emergency the president can reduce the salaries and the allowances of the government employees INCLUDING the judges of supreme court and high courts.

Question 2

Answer B

Explanation: a resolution containing the proposal is moved after a 14 days' notice in writing signed by not less than 1/4th of the total number of members of that House

Question 3

Answer A

Explanation: If the election of the President or the Vice- President is declared void acts done by him prior to the date of such decision shall be considered as valid as they were done in good faith. Disputes regarding the election of the Vice-President is referred to the supreme court. No functions are attached to the office of the Vice-President as such but his are of chairman of rajya sabha.

Question 4

Answer B

Explanation: effective majority

Question 5

Answer D

Explanation: All statements are correct

Question 6

Answer B

Explanation: because prime minister and his ministers are responsible to the Lok Sabha.

Question 7

Answer A

Explanation: Fourth statement is wrong. When the Prime Minister resigns all ministers has to resign and members chose their new leader who can become new prime minister if he has majority in lok sabha.

Question 8

Answer C

Explanation: The electoral college that elects the Vice-President of India consists of Members of both the houses of Parliament.