

TEST No. 27

TOPIC: DRAINAGE SYSTEM OF INDIA

SUBJECT: PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY

Explanation:

Question 1

Answer D

Explanation: The Alaknanda consists of the Dhauli and the Vishnu Ganga which meet at Joshimath or Vishnu Prayag. The other tributaries of Alaknanda such as the Pindar join it at Karna Prayag while Mandakini or Kali Ganga meets it at Rudra Prayag.

Question 2

Answer B

Explanation

Ib - Mahanadi

Amaravati – Cauvery

Muneru - Krishna

Pranhinta - Godavari

Question 3

Answer D

Explanation ALL statements are correct

Question 4

Answer C

Explanation: ALL statements are correct

Question 5

Answer D

Explanation : Bhima is a tributary of River Krishna

Question 6

Answer D

Explanation Tons is a tributary of River Yamuna

Question 7

Answer B

Explanation: ALL statements are correct

Question 8

Answer D

Explanation: See atlas